Dr DOUGLASS'S ARABIAN PASTE. Dr Douglas is well known having practiced in the principal cities in the Union dur ing the last 40 years His only reason for introduc ing the Paste in this public manner, is the con sciousness that there are thousands of unfortunate who are going down to premature graves by taking the miserable drugs of quacks

Dr D most solemnly affirms that during his practice of forty years this Excellent one single instance failed of effecting a cure in a few days without any change of diet or hindrance from business He has had scores of the most stubborn cases—cases that have resisted the regular course of treatment adopted by our first physicians for months and even years but after taking the Paste
for a few days the angry symptoms disappeared
and the patients were discharged entirely cured

If the unfortunate must all of drugging themselves with quack nostrums would purchase only one box of the Arabian Paste we should not see so many emaciated bodies and pallow countenances as we do at the present time

If in case this Paste should fail to effect a cure
in the shortest possible time ten times the price paid will be given to the purchasers on returning the empty boxes

For sale only by the original inventor and sole proprietor Dr PETER R DOUGLASS, at his Office No 36 Union street Boston at $5 per box where he can be confidently consulted on every disease incident to the human frame and the pa

DR. CUMMINGS'S

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla and Dock.

THE articles above named are the principal ingredients of this medicine With these only of vegetable origin are combined designed to render them more active and consequently more immediately effective

The Dock or rather a species of it now ranks as a medicinal plant second to none of the vegetable kingdom With the art of admixture and chemistry known to the proprietor has combined in the proper ratios of the compound he has succeeded in overcoming the difficulty of preserving the extract of the root for any considerable length of time

For many years the proprietor has tested to his practice the efficacy of the principal substances of the compound and is perfectly satisfied that they possess all the properties which have been ascribed to them Recently he discovered the idea of uniting them which has resulted in the production of the compound In the best ingredients are found to exist in the most active state The qualities which they separately possess

A larger portion of Sarsaparilla is soluble than has generally been supposed The extract most usually used (at least that is in the composition) is procured by subjecting the root to the action of menstrua usually employed in extracting its virtues for a long time without heat or any other accelerating agent None is permitted to be used in the compound that has not been tested by this process and that has been less than a year in preparation

The Compound is recommended for Scrofulous Disorders, Cutaneous affections Eruptions and Mercurial diseases Also for the numerous maladies arising from sedentary employments accumulations of a harassing and fatiguing nature, intemperance, exposures to extremes of heat and cold overtaxing the physical powers and other abuses of the constitution among which are Nervalgia Liver Affections of the Liver Bilious Complaints and Dyspepsia or Indigestion

In diseases of warm climates with which the proprietor has become familiar in his practice in Havana some years since the compound will prove particularly efficacious both as a remedy and a preventative

This medicine has been for some time in use in this city, where the proprietor has passed nearly half a century of his professional life It was extensively prescribed by him while in practice and it is believed to be in favor with his medical brethren in general to whom it is known

Prepared only by Dr Stephen Cummings and sold at wholesale and retail by Joshua Burgin & Co No 143 Middle street and Edward Mason No 55 Middle street—only agents for Portland

Theatre Burnt

On Saturday evening the Theatre in this city burst out in a very sudden and brilliant flame and was entirely consumed with a part of the scenery properties &c &c The stable of the New England House was saved with difficulty, by the indomitable perseverance of the Firemen whose efficiency in subduing the fire, won for them the highest praise We could not learn satisfactorily how the fire originated nor the amount of loss The "outsiders" generally did not express much regret at the concluding performance of the season

Child Poisoned by Cobalt.

On Saturday a child of Philip Dougherty of this city aged 18 months was found helping himself plentifully to a mixture of Cobalt and molasses set on the table to kill flies An emetic was immediately given and for hours the child continued to bring up pieces of poison—but rapidly sunk and died in the course of the day

Strike and Riot.

The Philadelphia Sun has information, by telegraph, that Allegheny city, near Pittsburg, Pa, was a scene of great excitement on the 31st of July, in consequence of a riot among the factory operatives A strike had taken place to force the mill proprietors to let the ten hour law go into operation Some of the operatives had resumed work in the Pennsylvania mills, notwithstanding the owners refused to grant their demands, and in consequence the other malcontents attacked the mills, broke the doors and windows, and finally dispersed the sheriff's posse, called out to suppress the outbreak The sheriff and several of the police officers, and other persons are reported to have been badly hurt—The operatives, it is said, gained the day, and fears were entertained that they would proceed to further violence They were, at the last accounts, in possession of the mill

SPEECH OF JOEN M. CLAYTON of Delaware, IN DEFENCE OF ZACHARY TAYLOR

Delivered in the Senate of the United States, July 5 1848

Concluded

GEN CASS AND THE WILMOT PROVISO

Mr Clayton—If the Senator is right, Gen Cass stands before the country as a sectional candidate—the head of a geographical party I hope Gen Taylor will decline that honor My hope is that he will never end his name to either of these geographical parties, but retain the power to settle the question without taking part with either

To judge of the propriety of Gen Taylor's position, let us inquire how the Baltimore nominations met this question They positively refused to adopt any resolution denouncing the Wilmot proviso Other Democrats besides the Barnburners, when a resolution to repudiate the principle contained in it was offered threatened to dissolve the party, the resolution was stifled, and the convention silent The party expressed no opinion on the dangerous subject—they dared not do it The platform they adopted did not recognize this geographical question as a party question, and this is in precise accordance with Gen Taylor's position. The anti proviso platform of Gen Cass was manufactured by himself, and he is welcome to the position of chief of one of those geographical factions with which Washington warned every American to have no connexion

Among the proceedings of the Baltimore convention I observe that Mr Yancey, of Alabama, McGehee of Florida, and Commander, of South Carolina, reported the following resolution

"Resolved, That the doctrine of non interference with the rights of property of any portion of the people of this country, be it in the States or in the Territories, by any others than the parties interested in them, is the true republican doctrine recognized by this body"

Mr Yancey desired this principle to be incorporated in the Baltimore platform. Now will the Senator from Mississippi tell me whether Gen Cass concurred in that report or not

Mr Foote—I have no knowledge on the subject. I have stated what must be evident to the Senator, that, Gen Cass discussed the Wilmot proviso in every aspect, in the plainest manner, and my impression is that his views will be sustained by the Democracy in every part of the country As to Mr Yancey I have not particularly noticed his views, but I think that his course will meet with the general reprobation of his party

Mr Clayton—Gen Cass then, repudiates Mr Yancey's sentiments?

Mr Foote—I do not know

Mr Clayton—I supposed that the Senator thoroughly understood all the opinions of Gen Cass The honorable gentleman has travelled with the candidate and was said to be a part of his body guard

Mr Foote—That particular point was not started (A laugh)

PARTY PLATFORM

Mr Clayton—Then there is another subject about which Gen Cass has no platform Now all these doubts, and ambiguities, irreconcilable inconsistencies come from the party which daily assails Gen Taylor because, as they say "he does not speak out" He has no platform So they spoke of Gen Harrison until he beat them 146,000 votes They called him 'General Mum' and now, of late, the complaint is made that those who nominated the Whig candidate has made 'no platform' But, they knew that Washington had no platform, and they had more respect for General Taylor, and for the intelligence of the people, than to put their candidate on a straight jacket, to seek by manufacturing professions of political faith for him, to deceive the voters of the country They intended that he should be free and unfettered as the President of the whole people But who is there among us that has not long since felt, and publicly or privately, expressed his contempt for these 'platforms' Look back to your Democratic platforms in 1844 Then the Democratic Convention passed a resolution to reannex all Oregon, saying that the title to it was clear and unquestionable up to 54° 40 — At the sound of the party bugle the partizan editors of the Democratic press throughout the Union clear and unquestionable A thousand Democratic meetings echoed back the sound 'Oregon and 54° 40' were painted on party banners and party walls and printed on party hands In Mr Polk's Inaugural Address also declared the title 'clear and unquestionable'

In a message in December, 1845, repeated the same loudly and threatened war to the knife and the knife to the hilt, against the English claim above 49° all the little and nearly all the great politicians of the party standing ready to make fight on this platform The party leaders afterwards occupied the attention of Congress for six months with this Oregon question, disturbing trade and distracting the nation, embarrassing trade and commerce, alarming the business men with the apprehension of a war with the most powerful nation on the earth, with which we have more commercial relations than with all the world beside The price of insurances rose as high at one time that no shipping merchant could venture on any distant voyage General Cass stood in the front of the whole riot He declared war to be inevitable His belligerent propensities displayed on this as well as on all other subjects, covered the whole platform I never believed that the cry for war was sincere on the part of the wire workers behind the screen though I never doubted that the worthy General was perfectly sincere, and was completely duped by them I advised my friends here to vote for the amicable notice to England —to 'pay out rope and test the reasonableness about the platform' The result was, that the whole pretensions to fifty four forty were abandoned by themselves, and they fell back to the British line of forty nine, upon which a settlement could, at any moment have been made without a word of all this unjust and unchristian bravado The platform was abandoned those who had adhered to it most violently among whom was Gen Cass, were prostrated in the dust The chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, (Mr Allen) in a dark sense of this humiliation on instantly resigned and the press its chairman, (Mr Flanagan) declared in his platform that Mr Polk had, by surrendering the platform and his own pledges to adhere to it, 'sunk himself so low that the lowest depths of infamy never reached him' When put to the test Mr Polk treated the whole platform of 54° 40 with contempt and gave up the whole country above 49°

Mr Foot (in his seat)—He was warranted by the advice of the Senate

Mr Clayton—Oh yes He was wise The folly was in having a platform In the case of an irresponsible cabal, called a convention, like the last one at Baltimore many of the members of which were appointed at a town or a county meeting, assembled and assumed the duty of directing and controlling the whole legislation of Congress on questions of peace and war They did not devote ten minutes to the title to Oregon, which they decided, and not one out of fifty of them had ever read or know any thing about it The platform thus formed deeply endangered the peace of fifty millions of human beings We were at the time, by all the blandering and blustering of the Administration driven within an inch of a war with England

THE KANE LETTER PLATFORM

There was another platform—that made by the Illinois Kane letter In that precious document your President, according to the construction of some, avowed himself to be in favor of the tariff, and according to that of others opposed it Unquestionably the mass of the people in the Northern States believed that platform letter, he avowed himself to be a friend of the tariff It is as true as scripture that in the State of Pennsylvania and in the United States at the North the flags were flying with the inscription, Polk Dallas, and the tariff of 42, and when we assailed those who practised such base impositions on the people as we deemed they did, accused them of duplicity, the reply was on all occasions "we are the true champions of the tariff of 42," and in proof of the assertion we were referred to the Democratic vote in the office House without which the bill of 1842 could not have passed and I did then, therefore, the Democrats were entitled to the whole merit of the measure Now again the politicians have planned one Head Quarter Case to suit the North, and another to suit the South, in regard to the Wilmot Proviso Thus by platforms, they ever palter with us in a double sense—to keep the word of promise to the ear, but break it to the hope—at one time deluding our honest people into a vote for Mr Polk who could never could have received had he in candor avowed himself to be what he has since proved to be the champion of free trade, and at another, professing Gen Cass as a man of Northern principles in the North, and a man of Southern principles in the South

PLATFORM OF THE CONSTITUTION

There is another platform—that of an honest man, who says that he is a Whig, but that if elected to the Presidency he will not be the head of a party—that he will be the President of the People—that he has no enemies to punish, no friends to reward—that he will do his duty in removing corrupt incompetent, unfaithful men from office he will not be the supporter of that infamous system of proscription which distributes the public offices at the country as the spoils of a victory—that he will on this, and all other subjects, endeavor to restore the Government of the country to the principles of the Constitution His "PLATFORM IS THE CONSTITUTION, all others are utterly unworthy of respect The patriotism of mere politicians which explodes in deceptive party pledges, is understood to be, as Dr Johnson defines it "the last refuge of a scoundrel" There is little difficulty in finding mottoes and illustrations to suit the title page of the whole volume of political platforms In the action of some of the Presidents of the United State we can find enough to remind us of the old saw—

"When the Devil was sick the Devil a monk would be—
When the Devil got well the Devil's monk was he"

GEN TAYLOR AN HONEST MAN

The honorable gentleman also attacks Gen Taylor on the ground that he lacks qualification In justice, however to his own noble heart, the Senator admits that Gen Taylor is a pure honorable, high minded and patriotic man But he finds fault with General Taylor on account of what he supposes to evince a want of great learning He reasons from Gen Taylor's confession that he was not a politician, that he is not competent for the Presidency That is I think, his chief objection The gentleman admits, also find much fault with one or two of Gen Taylor's letters I shall not deny that his letters like those of other great military commanders, written in the hurry of a camp and on a barrel, a box, or a drum head, have not the beauty of finish and the rotundity of period which the gentleman so well knows how to give his own letters But for strong sense and appropriate language to convey it, no man can excel those letters of Taylor in which he found it important to attend to the manner as well as the matter of his communications On every court martial on which he has served for the last twenty years, he other members of the court, although often scholars of high character, have generally selected Gen Taylor to draw up the sentence of the court, on account of his superior qualifications We laugh at the story that he cannot write his letters That from his enemies is a new tribute to his excellence Gen Cass is, we admit, a knowing and a learned man, but we admit, a knowing and a learned man, but General Taylor is a sterling man I agree with the poet, that—

Knowledge and wisdom far from being one,
Have oftimes no connection Knowledge dwells
In heads replete with thoughts of other men—
Wisdom in minds attentive to their own"

General Cass has great erudition and has written books But in the great essential qualities of wisdom justice integrity humanity and moral as well as physical courage Taylor approaches nearer to the character of Washington than any man who has occupied the Presidential chair since his day And with regard to the champion of the gentleman from Connecticut (Mr Niles,) who has indulged himself with daily flings at Gen Taylor I will give any odds in with equal frankness Mr Van Buren is a cunning man and it has often been observed that no cunning man was ever yet a wise one Exception is taken to Taylor's qualifications because he has been compelled in his country's service to pay more attention to the cartridge than the ballot box and in his letters has modestly expressed his own diffidence of his inability to discharge the duties of president of the United States But let me call the attention of the Senate to what General Washington said of himself in his inaugural address He says to Congress—

The magnitude and difficulty of the trust to which the voice of my country called me, being sufficient to awaken in the wisest and most experienced of her citizens a distrustful scrutiny into his qualifications could not but overwhelm with diffidence one, who in inheriting inferior endowments from nature and unpractised in the duties of civil administration ought to be peculiarly conscious of his own deficiencies"

Taylor is the man of modern times who has recalled this admirable modesty, and his friends so far from regarding it as a fault, view it as one of the brightest among the features which adorn his heroic character If Taylor has exhibited himself by that confession, to which the honorable Senator has referred the wisest the purest, and the greatest of all American Presidents, had taught him by his example

GEN CASS FOR SELLING POOR WHITE MAN

Mr President a paper is put into my hands which I am requested to read to the Senate In 1840 Gen Harrison was charged by your opponents with the high crime of having signed a law about fifty years ago while Governor of the Northwest Territory for selling poor white men into a sale for a limited term of years Gen Cass in reply to this charge, declared in his platform speech "indeed indentured servants are common in all parts of the country, and the right to hold them to service for a term of years is universally recognized The practice is a highly beneficial one, and has grown into use in all the new States from the impossibility of obtaining laborers in any other way" Look back to your Democratic platforms in 1844 Then the Democratic Convention passed a resolution to re annex all Oregon, saying that the title to it was clear and unquestionable up to 54° 40 — At the sound of the party bugle the partizan editors of the Democratic press throughout the Union clear and unquestionable A thousand Democratic meetings echoed back the sound 'Oregon and 54° 40' were painted on party banners and party walls and printed on party hands In Mr Polk's Inaugural Address also declared the title 'clear and unquestionable'

SEVEN DAYS LATER From Europe.

The most important news by the Americas arrives to us from England where matters can hardly fail shortly to come to a crisis

The prospect of a renewal of hostilities between Denmark and Schleswig Holstein is also viewed in Europe as an event of moment

THE FRENCH REPUBLIC

Paris remains tranquil, and there seems some hopes of the state of Siege being discontinued after to day

General Cavaignac, it seems determined to act with firmness but at the same time resolves not to give the disaffected another chance His conduct in respect to the vanquished in the revolt is admitted to have exhibited mingled approbation but he is said to feel that military government even on the principle on which he acts is not all that is required of the chief of a State

The situation of the finances on the resumption of the suspension of trade and manufactures is represented to be difficult as infinitely beyond the chance of suppressing an insurrection and procuring the necessaries of order

Change for Ireland.—In the house of Commons last night Lord John Russell stated the further struggle measures which the government intended to take for preserving order in Ireland He said amid the cheering of the House I shall give notice that I shall propose at 12 o'clock tomorrow to ask leave to bring in a bill to empower the Lord Lieutenant or other governors of Ireland to suspend habeas corpus acts for the first day of March 1849 such cases as he may have suspect of treason able designs against her majesty's crown and government.

This is no doubt the last resource and there are few of the well disposed either on this or the other side of the Irish channel, who will quarrel with the exercise of the expedient it amounts to a suspension of the habeas corpus act so far as Ireland is concerned and will have the effect either of preventing or permanently preventing an outbreak

In every quarter it appears that the Irish are preparing for an outbreak There has been a brisk and attack on Sir Thomas Cochrane The Catholic people on hearing of the arrest of their countrymen and the rumor that the Protestant servants was marked out for arrest, took muskets, and with arms in their hands, consisting of rifles and pikes, repaired to the authorities and demanded the release of the prisoners who were at once delivered up to them They then rang the chapel bells when 1500 men drawn from the neighboring villages armed to the teeth with rifles and pikes marched all night past an assembly house where the Protestant Parish delivery of the prisoners and the with transit of the few troops were considered a triumph

DENMARK

Letters from Rendsburg of the 16th July state that the war with the Danish Government has now assumed a very serious character The Danes have collected a large force of 40,000 men and have taken up a position at Schleswig which they intend to defend to the last extremity Russia and Sweden have declared in favor of Denmark

BOWEL COMPLAINTS COLICS, &c.

Effectually cured by JAYNE'S CARMINATIVE BALSAM

Dear Sir—You ask me what proofs I meet with of the efficacy of your Carminative I can safely say that I never prescribed a medicine for Bowel Complaints that has given me so much satisfaction, and my patients so speedy and perfect relief as this Whenever I ordered into a family it becomes a standing remedy for those ailments, and in no one case has it failed to afford a speedy good result of its efficacy and usefulness in the Summer complaints of children I have frequently supposed to snatch the little victims, as it were, from the grave "It saved the life of my child," and of each and succeeding child "have successfully heard and in domestic affections of infants have seen and also seen it act like a charm, and give permanent relief in a few hours, I may say in a few minutes In fact it is invaluable medicine, and no family should be without it

DISEASES OF THE Throat and Lungs.

COUGHS and Colds, the fruitful parents of Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, Pleurisy, and many other dangerous diseases, are too often neglected until the foundation of the Specific Complaint is laid deep in the System. A Physician is then called in, who administers a few Palliatives, pronounces the disease incurable, and the Patient in confirmation of his opinion, dies But why does he die? Simply because he does not resort to the proper remedy, but trusts the management of the Practitioner rather than the infallible evidence of experience and the most authentic testimony. On this basis is the only true one, the efficacy of have been thoroughly established. Let those who doubt read the following testimonials, which are merely samples of hundreds of the same nature.

CONSUMPTION

AND AFFECTION OF THE LIVER, CURED,

Of Twenty Year's Standing!

Corydon New York, July 21st 1847

This is to Certify that I, Nelson Larrabee of Jersey City, have been subject to a cough, soreness and a pain in the side and chest, attended with night sweats and general weakness of the system for a period of twenty years and pronounced INCURABLE CONSUMPTIVE, under the advice of regular physicians nor the many advertised remedies I have taken have been of any permanent benefit, and I was yielding to despair, to close a career of my misery, when I was persuaded to try Dr. E. N VONDERSMITH'S INDIAN COUGH BALM AND LUNG BALSAM, by the use of which, all my symptoms have been removed and I have been wonderfully restored to the blessings of health, and the prospect of a prolonged existence

In gratitude for which, and in the hope of benefiting others I solemnly testify to the facts in this certificate NELSON LARRAFF

Jersey City

Sworn to before me, this 21st day of July, 1847.

INFLAMMATION OF THE LUNGS

New York June 19 1847

DR. VONDERSMITH—Have been subject to a cough, pain in the chest, difficulty of breathing, &c., for many years past. About four months ago I took a severe cold which settled on my lungs. I was unable to attend to my business during the day. I had had recourse to all the usual remedies, but they proved ineffectual. I thought I could not possibly survive unless I could get relief. The excessive night sweats had reduced my whole body to a skeleton. I expectorated white frothy mucous, in fact, should I give the full particulars of my case, it would be almost incredible. I was recommended to try Dr. VONDERSMITH'S INDIAN COUGH BALM AND LUNG BALSAM. I consented, when I had used it about one week, my cough decreased considerable, which gave me great hopes. I continued with the medicine according to direction, and the result has been that I am restored to health, a blessing that I have not enjoyed for years, until the present time. Sincerely believe had I not made use of Dr. V's invaluable Medicine, that I would be mouldering in the silent grave. Therefore I believe that I am doing nothing but justice, in stating the above facts, and that you may show it to all those afflicted who may call upon you to administer to them. I shall be pleased at any time to correspond with the afflicted who may all upon me.

Your grateful patient and friend

CONSUMPTION.

STATEN ISLAND, June 5th, 1847

DEAR SIR—I take great pleasure in giving you my certificate, that December I was attacked with a severe cough pain in my left side loss of appetite, and continual fever, white and yellow mucous. Some days I raised a half pint of mucous streaked with blood I have been under the treatment of the first physicians, was recommended with Mixture of Philadelphia, to use a breathing tube I purchased one I only made use of it for one week it was the cause of bringing on hemorrhage of the lungs which reduced me so much that I was unable to set up, my cough was entirely destroyed, it was I think for persons to understand me I saw Dr Vonderbilt's Medicine recommended very strong by a person whom I had cured I sent for half a dozen bottles, I received great benefit from it, at which I ordered me to purchase four bottles I took according to the directions, and it cured me so forth regard. Dr. Townsend's SARSAPARILLA,

THE MOST EXTRAORDINARY MEDICINE IN THE WORLD

Is it extraordinary that up to this day, it is an almost unheard of thing for a number one warranted superior to any article of the kind, to be obliged to spend a great deal of time, and pay out a great deal of money, to introduce it to the public? Is it extraordinary that a medicine should be universally acknowledged to be superior to any other, and yet be obliged to be forced upon the people? Is it extraordinary that a medicine should be known to cure more than one hundred different diseases, and yet be obliged to be introduced to the public, as though it cured but one or two
